(NEW YORK, NY—October 30, 2015) — Glass Eye Pix, the maverick prolific production company responsible for a vast slate of captivating independent genre movies including THE LAST WINTER, I SELL THE DEAD, LATE PHASES, THE HOUSE OF THE DEVIL, STAKE LAND, THE INNKEEPERS, and the upcoming DARLING, announces the wide release of the highly anticipated third season of their sensory rich genre audio dramas TALES FROM BEYOND THE PALE.

Larry Fessenden and Glenn McQuaid's audio drama series is back with ten new tales to keep you awake at night. After taking the live show on the road and performing in New York, LA, Colorado and Montreal, Season 3 is a return to the studio with an exciting new roster of talent.

The lineup is:

THE HOUND directed by Stuart Gordon and written by Dennis Paoli (RE-ANIMATOR, FROM BEYOND)

JUNK SCIENCE written and directed by Brahm Revel (GUERILLAS, THE LAST WINTER comic)

THE RIPPLE AT CEDAR LAKE written and directed by Glenn McQuaid (I SELL THE DEAD, V/H/S)

FOOD CHAIN written by April Snellings (Rue Morgue) and directed by Larry Fessenden (UNTIL DAWN, THE LAST WINTER)

TRIBUNAL OF MINOS written and directed by James Felix McKenney (SATAN HATES YOU, AUTOMATONS)

THE CHAMBERS TAPE written and directed by Graham Reznick (I CAN SEE YOU, UNTIL DAWN)

NATURAL SELECTION written and directed by Larry Fessenden (UNTIL DAWN, THE LAST WINTER)

GUTTERMOUTH written and directed by Jeff Buhler (THE MIDNIGHT MEAT TRAIN, INSANITARIUM)

LITTLE NASTIES written and directed by Eric Red (BODY PARTS, NEAR DARK, THE HITCHER)

CANNIBALS written and directed by Joe Maggio (BITTER FEAST, THE LAST RITES OF JOE MAY)

And featuring the voice talents of Dominic Monaghan, Billy Boyd, Vincent D'Onofrio, Misha Collins, Michael Cerveris, Nick Damici, Barbara Crampton, Chris McKenna, Ezra Godden, John Speredakos, Jeremy Gardner, James LeGros, Sean Young, Lauren Ashley Carter, Pat Healy, James Ransone, and of course, your host, Larry Fessenden.

All 10 tales will be released in a hardcover book, lavishly illustrated by celebrated artist Graham Humphreys, responsible for the UK one sheets of A NIGHTMARE ON ELM STREET and THE EVIL DEAD, on a handsome USB drive which will also feature the Tales Intro, an animated film by stop-motion artist and Glass Eye Pix collaborator Beck Underwood.

With 40 audio dramas under its belt, TALES FROM BEYOND THE PALE pushes the format beyond the origins of old time radio, offering listeners a thoroughly immersive auditory experience. The series has been celebrated by the New York Times, The Wall Street Journal and NPR and has ranked among the top ten audio plays on iTunes.

McQuaid says, "I can't wait to get this new collection of Tales out to hungry ears. After five years on the project, the audio format is opening up to us in new ways and these ten Tales are a wonderful edition to our crazy canon of stories. These genuinely strange, unusual and original pieces are really powerful in the audio format."

Fessenden adds, "This was a particularly creative season for us as we had to build a lot of the Tales ourselves. McQuaid was performing triple duties on several tales, editing, sound designing and scoring while working closely with the writer/directors. We also did a lot of work on both coasts."

Fessenden and McQuaid joined forces with producer Jenn Wexler to assemble the season, and returned to Digit Audio, NYC for foley, mixing and mastering.

Season three of TALES FROM BEYOND THE PALE will be available for purchase/download at the TALES online store beginning Friday, November 27th for $2.99 per TALE or $25.00 for the complete set. The complete set is currently available for pre-order at TalesFromBeyondThePale.com/store.

Following the release, Indiewire will offer exclusive opportunities for fans to stream episodes for free, along with content such as filmmaker interviews and episode art.

Seasons 1 & 2 are currently available on iTunes, Audible, Amazon, and TalesFromBeyondThePale.com.
